RECREATION COMMITTEE PLANS GALA EVENTS FOR APRIL AND MAY

It will be heyday for the kids of Daly City during April and May with a gala series of events being planned for them by the Daly City Recreation Committee.

Most notable of these will be the Easter Egg hunt, scheduled for Saturday, April 16 and the May Day Festival to be held Sunday, May 1. Co-operating with the recreation committee in both events will be the Woodrow Wilson, Crocker, Colma and General Pershing P. T. A.s, the OLPH Mothers Club and the scout leaders.

The working and general committee for the events include Mrs. Marie Sorneson and Mrs. Cecil Saarinen of the Woodrow Wilson P. T. A., Mrs. Carol Freeland and Mrs. Dolly Jensel of the General Pershing P. T. A., Mrs. Effie Jordan of the Crocker Unit and Mrs. Virginia Ennis of the Mothers Club and Mrs. Hilda Dennis of Colma P. T. A.

Representing the scouts are Mesdames Cecilia Hale, Mrs. Mary Larson, Mrs. Dorothy Kramer and Mrs. Hilda Heagney. The group met Tuesday night with members of the recreation committee to formulate plans for the two events. Members of the recreation committee present were James Snell, Jay Johnson, Ed Cavagnaro, R. L. Crane, Ed Hines, Elman Rose and Mrs. Ann Eason.

The Egg hunt will be divided into age groups with those 4 and under, and children from 5 to 6 years old at Marchbanks park. The other age groups, those from 7 through 9 and those from 10 through 12, will hunt Easter eggs at the high school. Mrs. Heagney is chairman of the committee to prepare the eggs for the event, which will start at 10 a. m.

The group will meet again on Monday, April 4 at 7:30 p. m. in the City Hall to continue plans for the events.

Highlighting the May Day event will be the crowning of the May Day queen—a girl between the ages of 6 and 8 who attends either General Pershing, OLPH, Jefferson, Thornton or Woodrow Wilson elementary school. Each class room in each school with children of those ages will submit a candidate for queen. Each school will then vote on the candidate it wishes to represent them. Federation Of Girl Scout Councils To Hear Janet E. Tobitt Of England March 21 At Jeff High Auditorium

Miss Janet E. Tobitt of Sussex England, and New York City, author and well known authority on music, folk dances, and games, will be in Daly City at the Jefferson Union High School auditorium on March 21 at 8 p.m. under the sponsorship of the Federation of Girl Scout Councils of Northern San Mateo County.

Miss Tobitt has been for some years music and folk dance instructor at Girl Scout national training schools at various university summer schools. She also acts as consultant to a number of organizations.

Both here and in England, where she is a member of the Girl Guide Association, Miss Tobitt has frequent contact with school-age children of whose musical likes and capabilities she is keenly aware. Her training sessions for youth leaders are therefore based on practical experience. In them she includes instruction on presentation, leadership, the use of source material, the correlation of music with other activities and the planning of music appreciation programs.

Miss Tobitt collected her material in the picturesque villages of France, Italy, Scotland and Wales. During her stay in this country she has added many American folk songs and dances, including sea chanteys from England, Negro spirituals from the south and some of our rollicking mountain songs.

She has published many books of songs, folk dances and dramatized ballads. All her material is well known wherever Girl Scouts and young people get together.

For the past three years she has served with the Girl Scout Council of Greater New York and was for some time a member of the National Girl Scout Staff.

PETROCCHI COMMENDED BY S.F. POLICE GROUP

Showing their appreciation for cooperation by Sergeant Roland Petrocchi of the Daly City police force for aid in the recent capture of three armed holdup men at the Silver Saddle Club on Skyline boulevard, the police commission of the city of San Francisco commended Petrocchi for meritorious conduct in a letter to Police Chief W. W. Sunderland this week.

Acting on a tip that a bar burglary on the San Mateo - San Francisco county line would take place soon, San Francisco police inspectors enlisted the aid of county sheriff's deputies and Daly City police to set a trap for the action. Investigation indicated the Silver Saddle would be the likely holdup spot, so officers from the three police agencies set a literal ambush for the robbers.

Petrocchi was on the scene when several shots were exchanged between police and the gunmen, three of whom were captured after one escaped in a getaway car.

A life-long resident of Daly City, Petrocchi is well known as a former athletic star at Jefferson high school, where he graduated in 1933 after starring in football, baseball and golf. He has also been active in semi-pro baseball circles until pressure of police work caused him to drop that activity.

The letter follows:

Office of the Police Commission
City & County of San Francisco
March 11, 1949

W. W. Sunderland
Chief of Police
Daly City, California
Dear Chief:

At a meeting of the Meritorious Conduct Board of the S.F. Police Department held on Wednesday, March 9, 1949, it was unanimously agreed that this means should be taken to acknowledge the splendid cooperation shown between Sergeant Roland Petrocchi of your department, members of the San Mateo County Sheriff's Office, and members of this department, in apprehending three holdup men, James Williams, Eugene Lagomarsino and Garland Theus, while they were attempting to flee the scene of a robbery committed in San Mateo County on March 7, 1949.

Because the members of these three police agencies acted in the closest harmony and accord, the criminal activities of these men has been ended, at least for the time being.

The members of this Board wish to compliment Sergeant Petrocchi on the good police work done by him in this matter.

Very truly yours,
Henry C. Maginn,
Member
THE POLICE COMMISSION

A monkey wrench was thrown into the machinery for setting up a drive-in theatre near Colma this week.

Starlite Theatres corporation, which operates the Starlite drive-in theatre at elmont, has filed suit for $100,000 damages against the Junipero Serra Theatre company, building a theatre near Colma, charging the latter with infringement of patented, confidential construction and working plans for drive-in theatres held by the plaintiff.

Superior Judge Cotton will preside at the hearing, which will be held March 21 in Redwood City.

Quick thinking on the part of a father saved the life of his six-month-old boy. Broadmoor Church Rapidly Growing States Pastor

The Community Presbyterian Church in Broadmoor Village has grown each week during its month of operation, according to Rev. John A. Glasse, resident minister. The church has proved itself a "Community" church indeed, by serving people from the five communities of Colma, Daly City, Garden Village, South San Francisco and Broadmoor, Rev. Glasse said.

A "meet your neighbor" social evening is planned for Friday evening in the Community Center.

The sermon subject this Sunday at the morning worship service held at 11:15 a.m. will be "John Doe and the Church." The choir, directed by Memory Gomez, will sing Bach's "My Heart Ever Faithful" and "Ancient of Days" by Jeffery. Esle Faust will be the organist.

"The choir now has two first sopranos, two second sopranos, three altos and a fine bass-baritone," stated Mrs. Gomez, "but we still need a tenor — or better, a first and second tenor!"

Choir rehearsals are held in the chapel at 87th street, just west of Junipero Serra, every Thursday night from 8 to 9 p.m.

S.F. Supervisors Squawk At Paying S.M. Tax Bill

San Francisco supervisors squawked at paying taxes on water department holdings in San Mateo county this week after they got the bill.

Terming the San Mateo county taxes "exhorbitant," Supervisor George Christopher led a successful move to remove a tax appropriation measure to committee.

This gave San Francisco's new city attorney, Dion Holm, the job of studying possible legislation to force San Mateo county to reduce its annual tax against the city's holdings in San Mateo county.

Two More Lots Purchased For War Memorial Building

A petition against the building of a motel at the Hillside Mission quarry site was presented to Mayor J. P. Green and Councilmen Fred Bertetta and E. J. Mooney at the council meeting Monday night. Bearing signatures of 243 persons in the Hillside-Edgewood Terrace district, the petition was formulated when residents there noticed a sign on the property announcing the building of the motel.

H. H. Smith, owner of the property for the proposed motel, defended it stating that the building would be an asset to the community as it would bring more people into the district, thereby increasing business.

Apparently, however, this didn't change the minds of the petitioners, of whom some fifty were in the audience. They maintained that the motel would bring "the wrong class" of people into the center of town and that it would also aggravate an already bad traffic condition.

The council delayed action on the situation pending an investigation. So far, they have refused any permit, since the city has planned to extend Brunswick street through the quarry.

At the meeting the council also:

Passed resolutions announcing intent to form an assessment district in the newly-annexed Garden Valley subdivision, for street and utility improvements.

Approved the classification of Building Inspector, which has been drawn up by the civil service board of review, and approved a list for senior and junior clerks available for all departments. Heretofore a separate list had been kept for each department.

Approved plans and specifications for street improvements in the Westlake subdivision, and authorized the city engineer to give written permission to proceed with the work, subject to his inspection.

Passed a resolution authorizing purchase of two lots on Alp avenue for the Mission War Memorial site. The lots were purchased from B. C. Ross at $1800 each.

Introduced a disaster ordinance, setting up a disaster council and organization, and an ordinance abandoning portions of Bepler street and portions of County street to straighten out defects in old maps.

Seating Capacity Of Crest Theatre To Be Increased

The Crest Theater's seating capacity of 525 will be increased to a total of 714 seats, according to plans completed by architects this week.

Extending of the present building by an additional 23 feet at the rear will commence within the next two weeks, according to Philip Zenovich, owner and manager of the showhouse.

THE TRUTH ABOUT "FREE MEDICINE"

The longer Congress delays in taking action on President Truman's health program, the greater is the probability that nothing much will be done. This is true because the average citizen is beginning to think about the cost.

As originally proposed by Mr. Truman, the scheme for "free" medical and hospital care doubtless looked attractive to a good many indivduals who have found their medical and hospital bills a heavy burden. They did not realize what such care would cost them, if financed through pay-roll taxes. Neither did they know anything about Britain's experience with socialized medical and hospital care. Now they are beginning to learn the truth.

Americans currently spend about 4 per cent of their income for medical care and hospital service. In return they get the best health service to be had anywhere in the world. It isn't perfect. It isn't as well distributed among income groups as would be desirable. It isn't on a budget basis for most people as yet. But it is better medical and hospital care than any other country has or ever had.

If we may judge by the estimates of Oscar Ewing and Arthur J. Altmeyer, who naturally would see the bright side, the health program would bring pay-roll taxes up to 10 per cent or higher. Some members of Congress, after examining the problem, think the social security burden generally will go far above that and approximate 20 per cent.

Whatever the correct figure may be, the sort of medical care the average citizen would get under socialization would not be worth the cost. There wouldn't be any more doctors or hospitals, at least very soon. They would have greatly increased demands on their time and facilities, once their services were made "free." The average person undoubtedly would find himself getting a lower grade of medical care and paying more for it. The same would be true of hospital care. Certainly there would not be as good care for those seriously ill, because of the diversion of physicians' time and hospital service to nonessential cases.

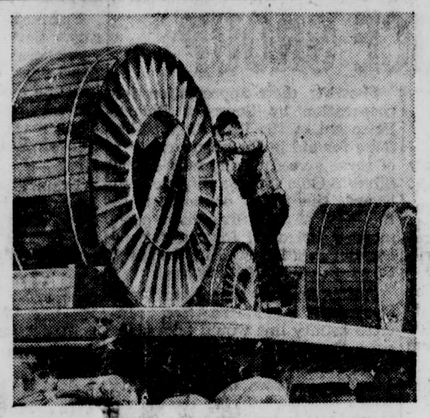
HOW MANY COAST JOBS WERE BORN

Pacific Telephone's construction program has made work for countless thousands and added to the West's postwar prosperity



1. When you see telephone cable on its way to work, you're watching the West benefit in two important ways. It means new voice highways for the West . . . more telephones . . . better service. It also means jobs and paychecks for the men who make the cable, those who install it and, later on, those who maintain it. And putting in new cable is just a small part of our building program.

2. Hundreds of new buildings mean work for carpenters, bricklayers—and work for those who provide the materials. They mean future jobs for telephone people. Since the war, we've put half a billion dollars to work in new construction. Much of it has found its way in ever-widening circles into the economy of practically every city and town in the West.

3. More business for the baker, the druggist, the clothier — telephone construction has given the West a big postwar lift. There's no way, of course, to trace all the jobs created by just one mile of cable . . . or one building. But it would probably be hard to find a family whose income has not benefited, in some way, from the money we've spent to provide more service.

4. It all adds up — this tremendous building program — to a better West for all of us. It is being paid for by thousands of investors who have provided the millions of new working dollars that make the job possible. Result: More telephones . . . better service. Yet a few pennies still buy a telephone call — one of your real values today.

JEFFERSON PUPILS WIN FIRST THREE PLACES IN LINCOLN ESSAY TEST

On Tuesday morning, March 15, Arthur Bodien, Daly City superintendent of water works and a lifelong student of Lincoln's life presented the Jefferson Elementary School with a plaque for winning the Abraham Lincoln Essay Contest held annually for many years among pupils in the Daly City elementary schools. First, second and third places were all won by Jefferson students this year with the winners being announced at the time of the award. They were: first place, Marjorie Clark of the eighth grade; second place, Irene Braitsch of the high seventh; and third place, Gwen Anthony of the low sixth grade.

Taking part in the presentation ceremony were: the teachers of the winning students, Miss Marie Traynor, Mr. Don Pagani and Mrs. Otha Kinsey; Superintendent Snell; Mrs. Hilda Dennis, president of Colma P.T.A.; Mrs. Marie Sorensen, president of Woodrow Wilson P.T.A.; Mrs. Effie Jordan, president of Crocker P.T.A., and Mrs. Dolly Gensel, president of Pershing P.T.A. The four presidents acted as judges in selecting the winners. The winning essay follows.

HONEST ABE LINCOLN

"Whom did you say? Abraham Lincoln? Why yes, I know him well, for who in America is there, who does not know his story and revere the name of one of the greatest men in her history? Let me tell you his story.

"On that fateful day in April, 1865 Abraham Lincoln was seen sitting in his reserved seat at Ford's Theater. Many people have probably wondered what thoughts passed through Lincoln's mind before his assassination. Well, he might have been thinking of the little log cabin in which he was born not far from Hodgensville, Kentucky and how he won the name, 'Honest Abe Lincoln' because of his honesty, kindness, and unselfishness. Or perhaps of his mother, who had taught him to read and write, or of his efforts to borrow books in his constant search for knowledge, or perhaps of the little school he hardly ever had a chance to attend. He might have remembered how at the age of twenty-five he was elected to the legislature and became known all over the state of Illinois for his fairness in law.

"Oh, no one knows just what passed through his mind, but Abraham Lincoln himself. But let me take the story from there.

"Lincoln was chosen to represent the people of Illinois in Congress. The big question at that time was slavery. Lincoln hated slavery and if it had not been for him, our country might have become divided for the Southern States had threatened to withdraw from the Union. But President Lincoln would not let that happen. His great ambition was realized when he freed the slaves and because of this act, the tide of the war changed at Gettysburg. Later Abraham Lincoln delivered his famous 'Gettysburg Address' in dedication of a memorable battlefield.

"This story I have told you is brief. One could write many words about his great strength of character, his nobility, his ideals, his statesmanship, his service to his country. But all this came to an abrupt end when an assassin's bullet ended his brilliant career.

"But the name of Abraham Lincoln will always remain a true symbol of love and loyalty and devotion to his country."

Wedding Planned For Sunday Afternoon

The Grace Presbyterian church will be the scene of the wedding of Robert Hailer, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hailer, 25 Muirwood drive, and Beverley Rowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rowe, 174 Winchester street. The ceremony will be performed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon Sunday, March 20.

Danny Kaye is shown here as the music professor in "A Song Is Born," which will be playing at the Daly City Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, March 20, 21 and 22. He is co-starred with Virginia Mayo.

Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. Events

Mesdames Henry Adami, J. E. Surber, and James Snell were appointed by Mrs. John Sorensen, president, to assist Mrs. Emil Bertelli, life membership chairman, in selecting the one person who has done the most outstanding work for the unit. The committee will meet at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, March 24, at the home of Mrs. Emil Bertelli, 34 Bepler street.

The final report on the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. membership drives, conducted by Mrs. J. E. Surber, membership chairman, shows an increase of approximately 33 per cent over last year's membership. Of the 318 members, 59 are fathers.

The purchasing of eye glasses for needy children was recently undertaken as a worthwhile project by the W. W. P.T.A. room mothers. Mrs. A. E. North is the chairman.

If you're a taxpayer in San Mateo county, the collector wil lbe asking you for more money to operate the county government during the next fiscal year, which begins July 1.

Tentative county budget totals $8,253,158.21. County Controller Fred E. Beer did not explain how the 21 cents go ttacked on to this $8 million odd tax bill, which is the total of departmental salary, maintenance-operation, and capital outlay requests, and special expenses for 1949-50, submitted by various county department heads to the board of supervisors.

The contemplated budget represents an increase of $593,148 over the $7,660,010 requests of a year ago.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER

Don Sheridan, a former Crocker graduate returned to visit his teachers and school this past week. Don is seventeen and these past months has been with Uncle Sam's navy, aboard vessels which have visited the many islands of the Pacific. Inasmuch as the H6-L6 social unit's area of experience is the Pacific islands, Don was encouraged to visit the classroom and give this group of students some first-hand information just "hot off the griddle," stressing the element of human and social geography. The group were not only enthusiastic but profoundly and earnestly interested as they propounded questions at one of their former graduates — "Are these people as civilized as we are?" "What do they eat?" "How do they travel" and many more, all of which Don seemed to be able to answer intelligently and to the satisfaction of the group. Many students have been asking, "When is he coming back again?" Good luck, Don; we hope you visit us again!

Contests are one of the extra curricula activities which are engaging the interest of the 7th and 8th grade students of the Crocker School. Safety education, an important item in today's machine conscious age, is being stimulated by encouraging students to give a name and write a safety slogan for the friendly highway patrolman — a Disney character — appearing on billboards throughout the state. The winner will receive a Schwinn built bicycle, and Crocker students are earnestly hoping one of the Crocker student body will be the recipient. Aside from this tangible incentive, students are being made supremely conscious of the statewide slogan with all its rules and implications — "Drive SAFELY Today—and Drive TOMORROW!"

Relative to the democratic principles of living today, the American Legion Auxiliary's Essay Contest this year, on theme "Our Privileges and Responsibilities as Future Citizens" is being actively participated in, on a voluntary basis by the 7th and 8th grades at Crocker. Integrated with the language arts with special emphasis on the specifics of sentence structure, clarity of expression, punctuation, capitalization, choice of words, etc., as well as with social studies, students are further learning and being encouraged to "think" and "appreciate" what a democratic form of government provides. It is sincerely hoped that Crocker again will be fortunate, as it was last year, in winning both district and county recognition.

Activities and projects at Crocker School for the second semester are going along in full swing, adding to the general development of its citizens.

By far the most interesting social studies period of the new term for the H7 and L7 was when Mr. Tergis talked to the class on Greece. He made ancient Greece with its Golden Age alive to the students. The Trojan Horse took shape in each pupil's imagination inside the walls. Then at night when the great horse disgorged an army of men, each child realized the strategy which had been carried out.

Mr. Tergis mentioned the guerrilla warfare going on in Greece at the present time, but he also emphasized what characterized the people of the country and their way of life. When his talk was over the pupils understood that the Greeks do not have as many automobiles as we Americans, but that each Greek person can and does think out his own problems and lives by his own principles. The students found that the Greeks as a whole are very industrious, appreciate the beautiful things in life, and strive to do that which is right.

In the study of the Pacific islands the L6-H6 has been further assisted in the past week by another talk from Mr. Hunter, one of the student's parents. Mr. Hunter, a former naval officer, has done duty in Hawaii and the Aleutians. He first showed some personal film, and then was kept busy answering questions. He told of how they burned sugar cane before taking it to the factory; of the variety and mixture of races in Hawaii; of the volcanic origin of these and many other Pacific islands; of earthquakes in the Aleutians and some basis for the existence of the lost continent of Mu.

H5-L6 students have begun an intensive study of the parts of speech and the correct use of words in spoken and written English in an endeavor to form good speech habits.

Last week the students of the L5-H5 welcomed William Keller to their class. William formerly attended the Geary School in San Francisco.

An election of officers for the Crocker School glee clubs has recently taken place. The results of the election is as follows:

Girls' Glee Club: president, Heather Bridges; vice-president, Eleaine Martinez; secretary, Joy Logan; librarian, Lois Sadler.

JEFFERSON

Music and rhythm filled the first grade room during their musical activity program this week. The class was learning to skip and march to music. They also beat time to other rhythmic songs. Bill Park, Wanda Thiessen and Diane Salonisen were leaders in the motion songs.

The high first grade has been discussing the type of neighborhood they like to live in. They are seriously considering their own part in making their neighborhood a better place to live.

The children have listed some of the ways they can make their neighborhoods safer and better places. Among those ideas presented were: playing in their own back yards; being courteous to neighbors, children and others; playing without fighting; being obedient; being careful to keep toys or other things which might be dangerous off the sidewalks when not being used, and keeping the yards free of waste papers. By following these rules the boys and girls know they will make better neighbors.

The high second grade is busy drawing and coloring barns, pigs, cows, horses and other farm animals. Their unit of study is concerned with life on the farm and the class is making a mural depicting farm life.

Joan Loken, Sharon Tolan, and Bruce Tarkington were new students welcomed into the second grade this week.

Harry Baker, a pupil in the fourth grade, gave a very interesting talk to his classmates about the aborigines of Australia. Harry's home is in that southern continent so he has firsthand information to present. He illustrated his talk by pictures, and drawings on the blackboard. He showed how the aborigines looked, how they built their shelter, cooked their food, and sent messages from one tribe to another. The children recognized many similarities between the customs of the aborigines and the natives of our own continent, the American Indians. Australia no longer seems so far away and the Australian aborigines are now real, not storybook people, to these children.

STORIES PICTURES PUZZLES GAMES

Movie Lingo Shades Teen-Age Slang

IF YOU WERE TO VISIT THE SHOOTING OF A MOVIE YOU'D HEAR WORDS USED IN A WAY QUITE UNFAMILIAR TO YOU—THESE WORDS WOULD HAVE A PARTICULAR MEANING TO THOSE MAKING THE PICTURE—
BREAK-AWAYS ARE USED FOR BOPPING PEOPLE—

BY WALTER KING

THE hero grapples with the villain at a cabin in the path of a forest fire. There ensues a mighty battle between two closely matched men of the wide open spaces.

Furniture is knocked apart as it is thrown and swung on the heads of the fighters. The two men battle on. The heroine grabs a jug and breaks it over the head of the nasty old bad man. Still the fight goes on. "Gee," you whisper to your chum, as you munch popcorn, "those hombres are tough."

No, boys and girls, they weren't hurt a bit. The furniture and jug were "break-aways," props of plaster and balsa wood, made especially for the scene. They were meant to be broken with the least possible damage to the heads of very high-priced movie stars.

"Break-aways" is one of many zany terms you'd use if you worked in Hollywood. There are also eggs, dollies, toe-nails, milk, soup, cracker boxes, ducks and lilies, none of which resemble eggs, dolls, toe-nails, etc.

Movie milk is not put in the refrigerator. Instead, the camera is put into the milk, which is a soundproof box to silence the camera noise.

THE stage directions for a scene might be: "Get the fly squad to move the dolly. Pull the toe-nails from that flat and strike on 15." A dolly is a wheeled platform to move the camera. The fly squad moves things around the studio. Toe-nails are double-headed nails which can be driven into wood only as far as the first head. A flat is a piece of scenery. "Strike on 15," in labor trouble, it means to tear down the set on sound stage No. 15.

You see, in movie lingo, soup and nuts get all mixed up with firearms and musical instruments. The "rifle" is the spotlight causing the trouble. A "cello" is a sheet of frosted plastic used to tone down strong lights. Certain types of globes are called "eggs," others are "bottles."

Various types of lights are known as "babies" "cracker boxes" and "bon-bons." The "bon-bons" of 2000 watts would light a dozen ordinary homes.

Of thousands of feet of film used in making a scene, much of it is never printed. A lot more is thrown out when it comes back from the "soup," which is the process of developing a film—particularly the fluids used to develop a film. If a director is pleased with a "shot," which is a scene as it is acted, he asks to have it printed. The next day he decides from a "rush," which is prints of yesterday's shots, whether it is satisfactory. If it is, it's a "lily."

Finally there's the order to "wrap it up," which means the work is done. It's the same thing as "30" in newspaper lingo. Then the "ducks," which are the microphones, are put to bed (put away), eggs and babies are flicked out. Tired actors grab a sandwich, which means they eat, whether it really is a sandwich or a banquet, and go somewhere else to talk shop in the same strange lingo that they alone can understand.

Studio Think You Are? Let's Have a Party!

A STUDIO party can begin in the kitchen with common things like laundry starch and cleaning powder!

To get ready for the party, make up a big batch of laundry starch, a little thicker than the kind used to starch your best bib and tucker. Pour the starch into three different bowls and add a few drops of food coloring to make red, blue, and yellow. When the starch has cooled, you can dip into it to "finger paint."

Spread newspapers on every flat surface and all over the kitchen floor under big sheets of drawing paper. (You can use wrapping paper as well.) Then paint a modernistic masterpiece. Try making a picture of your brain pursuing an ideal.

Then make a thick paste of window cleaning powder and water. Divide the paste into three parts and color it as you did the starch. Then use your fingers to paint directly on the window panes. When your picture is finished wipe it off with a soft cloth to leave the window shining clean again. It's a good way to get the windows washed.

On the kitchen table arrange a miscellaneous heap of small obcolored papers, buttons, hairpins, scraps of fabric and lace, any small objects you can find. You will need a sizable lump of modeling clay to stick the objects into jects for the sculptors. Bits of place, or you can provide paste so the workers can make a montage —a picture of related parts. With some of your collection, you may be able to out-Dali Salvador himself!

If you feel like dressing the part, clap on an old beret and drape yourself in a smock. Use "still life" arrangements of fruits and pitchers, baskets and vegetables for decorations. Candles in bottles will give more art-in-an-attic atmosphere. Have lots of food, for artists are always hungry.

Chef Jack Schilter Of The Chalet Holds Down Two Jobs, But He Does Take Time To Pass On A Couple Of Recipes

Chef Jack Schilter and wife are two of the busiest people on the peninsula, but they have taken time out to pass on some old, but always delicious, recipes of the kind especially needed during these days of high prices.

Schilter is chef of the Whitcomb hotel in San Francisco and owner of The Chalet, Daly City dining place featuring "delightful dinners." He goes to work at the Whitcomb very early in the morning, and when he gets home in the afternoon he rests for a while and then prepares dinner for patrons of his own establishment.

Mrs. Schilter cooks the lunches at The Chalet, which is located at 1913 Junipero Serra boulevard. She supervises the general operation of the business and the serving of food.

Schilter is not a new discovery at the Whitcomb, for he has been in that hotel's kitchen for 23 years. He started The Chalet here about a year ago.

Here are the recipes Mr. Schilter passes on for the benefit of north peninsula homemakers:

CHICKEN POT PIE

Cut up a young hen into small portions; clean and wash well. Put in a pot with quart of water, season with salt, bring to boil and skim.

Then add a bouquet garni and after boiling for about thirty minutes, remove the bouquet garni. Add about one-half dozen potatoes cut into squares, one dozen small onions and six large diced carrots and boil together until well done.

Mix three spoonsful of flour into one-half cup water and stir into stewing chicken. Boil for about 15 minutes.

Put the above into individual deep pit casseroles, adding fresh cooked peas and sprinkle with chopped parsley. Cover with biscuit or pie dough, brush over with yolk of one egg and bake in oven until brown.

Jack Schilter

Serve very hot.

IRISH STEW

Cut two pounds of boned breast and shoulder of mutton into pieces. Slice two pounds of potatoes and chop four medium-sized onions. Take a saucepan just large enough to hold these ingredients and the moistening; line the bottom of the utensil with a layer of the pieces of meat, and season the latter with salt and pepper. Upon the meat spread a layer of sliced potatoes and chopped onions; repeat the operation, again and again, until all the ingredients are used up, and remember to place an herb bunch in the center.

Moisten with one and one-third pint of water, and cook gently in the oven for one and one-half hours. The potatoes in this preparation answer the double purpose of garnish and thickening.

Serve in a timbale and have it boiling hot.

BOUILLABAISSE AMERICAINE (FISH STEW)

Simmer in a shallow saute pan six chopped shallots, one - half onion sliced very fine and one stalk of white leek also finely sliced, in two spoonsful of olive oil, for about one minute.

Then add a clove of chopped garlic, one glass of white wine, one pint of fish stock or hot water, salt, pepper, a little Cayenne, a bouquet garni and the tail of a live lobster cut in six pieces, and one dozen well washed Little Neck clams, shell and all; boil for ten minutes.

Add some solid meat of white fish such as rock cod, bass, tomcods, etc., and a pinch of whole saffron tied in a cloth. Boil again for twenty-five minutes. Do not skim.

Remove the saffron and serve in deep dish with the broth. Sprinkle some chopped parsley over the top. Serve separate, slices of bread fried in oil and then rubbed with garlic.

San Bruno Woman Takes Fourth Place In State W.O.M. Contest

Mrs. Edna Kolls of San Bruno took fourth place in a state contest among chapters of Women of the Moose for the Girl of the Golden West who will preside at the National Moose convention in San Francisco this August.

Mrs. Kolls, wearing the pictured costume, will be in the court of the winner, Mrs. Dorothy Peterson of Glendale. The contest was held at Salinas during a mid-winter conference where forty-six chapters were represented.

Mrs. Kolls has also been appointed National Entertainment chairman for the National convention to be held in San Francisco.

This is the first time San Francisco has been the locale for a national Moose convention and no efforts are being spared, according to Mrs. Kolls, to make the convention one of the highlights of the order's history.

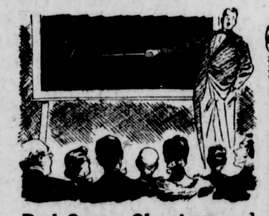
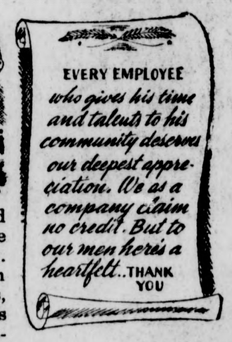
We'd like you to meet a nice guy

Here's Walt Storch of Oakland — Scout Master, Santa Claus, Red Cross Instructor... the pal and hero of more than a thousand kids. Like other P. G. and E. employees in scores of California towns, Walt has a civic hobby: his is helping children grow up. He has trained teen-age troopers for 21 years, shared their problems, attended their summer camps, led them on hiking and fishing trips. He contributes his own time generously to these activities. We're mighty proud of Walt Storch and other employees like him. They're the kind of men who make every town Boys' Town.

Year-round safety training qualifies P. G. and E. men to teach boys how to save lives. Our employees all over the system help Scouts earn merit badges in first-aid, safety and life-saving.



Red Cross Chapters and local clubs and groups share in this safety schooling. Many P. G. and E. men work closely with schools, churches, safety councils and volunteer fire departments.



EVERY EMPLOYEE
who gives his time and talents to his community deserves our deepest appreciation. We as a company claim no credit. But to our men here's a heartfelt..THANK YOU

FACTS FOR SPEEDERS

An automobile traveling at 60 miles per hour strikes with the same impact as it would if driven off the top of a nine-story building. And an automobile traveling at this pace requires, under average braking and road conditions, a distance of 242 feet to come to a full stop. Drivers should think of these facts before they "step on the gas."

Organized Labor United Against Repeal Of Prop. 4

Organized labor in California today stood united against the repeal of Proposition 4, the initiative amendment voted into the state constitution last November by which aged and blind pensions were increased and liberalized.

Within the past week, the California CIO Council and the State Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen announced unanimous disapproval of the repeal attempt and warned their members against signing repeal petitions. Their action was identical with that of the State Federation of Labor (AFL), previously reported, and resulted in a solid front of the three major labor groups against repeal.

Both the CIO and the Railroad Brotherhood called not only on their memberships but on all friends of organized labor to refuse to sign the repeal petitions, and to vote against repeal of Proposition 4 if the repeal intiative qualified for the ballot.

The CIO characterized the repeal attempt as a dangerous precedent by which initiatives adopted by a large vote of the people at a regular election could be reversed immediately afterward at a special election, which usually draws but a light vote.

Serra Plans Spring Festival

Serra High school is making preparations for its annual spring festival to be held at the school, Crystal Springs road and Clark boulevard, in San Mateo on the evening of May 14.

The festival is sponsored by the high school Fathers' club and Mothers' auxiliary. All proceeds are used for the school athletic and library funds.

Heading the festival committee are Richard Cotter of Millbrae and Mrs. J. J. Schoonmaker of Redwood City. Tickets are being handled by Chairman Lyle Kenney, assisted by Mrs. George Hollister, both of San Mateo. Other parish committees are now being organized.

Considerable enthusiasm is being shown for this year's event since the turnout for school sports has been unusually large in the past season. Out of a student body of 300, some 90 boys have participated in each sport.

A meeting to make further festival plans will be held at the school on the evening of March 24. All parents are urged to attend.

Potato Goes to Britain

Regarding the introduction of the potato into Great Britain, the two legends more generally believed are those surrounding Raleigh and Drake. According to the first: Solanum tuberosum, the common potato of our fields and gardens, was first introduced by Sir Walter Raleigh who brought the roots from Quito and caused them to be planted in his own garden at Youghal, Ireland.

HI-LITES AT C.C.S.F

By Roy Hurlbert

Founded on the idea of backing up Ram activities, athletic or otherwise, the Ram Boosters Organization was authorized last week with the approval of President A. J. Cloud. This group which hopes to expand in membership, works on the basis of acquiring the needy cash so vital to carrying on off-the-campus projects by accepting subscriptions from nearby business men and merchants. First to have benefitted from this financial aid plan was to be the college's basketball team, which would have been sent to Hutchinson, Kansas, for the national junior college playoffs if events had been different last week at the regionals in Sacramento.

CASABA CAPERS

Ralph Hillsman's NCJCC kingpins, seeded the squad to beat in the capital city tournament with a 28 won, 1 loss, seasonal record going into the affair, fell apart at the seams in the championship crucial and were shelled by Grant Tech's Saracens, 56-50, who will make the Kansas jaunt as central California's challenger for the national crown.

City College made easy work of Marin, 73-47, and Santa Rosa, 62-50, in first and second round pairings in that order, but the old law of averages caught up with them when Woody Hutchinson's Saracens avenged two earlier lickings from the Rams and bounced back to completely command their third encounter with the locals and triumph going away. Grant Tech was never headed from the offset, led 24-20 at half time, worked to a 50-32 margin past the third quarter, and held on with stalling tactics to repulse the tense City College five in a last minute rush which was too belated to make the difference.

ODDS AND ENDS

Lu Watters and his famous jazz band entertained collegians in last Friday's special two-hour rally in a program presented by the Rally committee with the hope of raising funds for the Ram cagers intended exodus eastward which failed to materialize, with the Sacramento reversal. The collected dough will be utilized when necessary, however.

The plant's honor society, the Alpha Gamma Sigma, announced the election of the following new officers: ex-Marine Bob Jonjock, headman; Al Abramson, vice-president; Renna Varellas, secretary-treasurer, and Wilber Renke, club representative. Faculty sponsor Don Jensen lends out the services of these scholarly members as tutors to students deficient in certain subjects and are very obliging in doing so.

All campusites seeking work during the approaching summer were advised to file applications as early as possible if they are to be first in line for the scarce list of positions to be open by then, according to the advice of Joseph A. Amori, placement director. Amori said the extended semester which runs until June 17 will hamper all job applicants since other individuals will be available before the City College people will be off.

Sheep in Middle East

Sheep raising is of some importance in the Middle East, in Northern Africa, and in some central Asia regions. In these countries, however, sheep are primarily a source of meat, with wool secondary and usually of coarse types.

News Notes From San Mateo Jaysee

The Flying Club at San Mateo Junior College will sponsor a dance this Friday evening with the dancing taking place in the hangar of the San Carlos Airport. The orchestra will play from nine to twelve, and tickets will be on sale at the door.

Two junior college students, James Brick and Thomas Davies, both veterans, have some of their art work in water color and pastels on display at the Peninsula Art Show arranged by the local branch of the American Association of University Women.

High sophomores, getting ready for their June Commencement, have decided to have a series of class programs, with one planned for each month. A gay nineties social and a picnic are already being planned.

Rain has continued to hinder the jaysee athletic program, but the baseball team found opportunity to swamp the San Jose State reserves, 14-2, in a nine-inning game, while the tennis team walloped Hartnell of Salinas seven matches to zero in a conference match and then defeated Cal. Poly of San Luis Obispo 8½ to 1½ matches. The track and golf squads have been idle. All the squads have games or matches awaiting good weather.

C. Edward Graves, Carmel lecturer and photographer, will show his beautiful color pictures of the Grand Tetons and the Olympic Peninsula at Community Hall Monday evening, March 21, and pictures of Yellowstone National Park on March 28. The 7:30 p.m. programs in the college auditorium are open to the public without charge.

From the Indians and Spaniards Colorado takes many names for its towns, rivers and mountains, such as Sangre de Cristo, blood of Christ; Colorado, color red; San Juan, St. John; Cimarron, wild or unruly; Culebra, snake; Cucharas, spoon; Pueblo, Indian village; Rio Grande, grand river; La Veta, the vein; La Junta, the junction.

Bird Banding

Bird banding has solved the riddle of where most birds winter. Many stop during the cold weather in southern United States; other species stop in Central America; and yet others fly far south of the equator, spending their winters in Central South America.

Remarkable Rose Bush

What is believed to be the world's largest rosebush is at Tombstone, Ariz. A white Banksia 50 years old, it has a trunk more than 40 inches in diameter and had an estimated 150,000 blooms in May.

85-FOOT MAST FOR GJOA

With installation of a new 85-foot, two-ton ironwood mast on the historic Gjoa, restoration of the Amundsen polar expedition ship is nearing completion.

The Gjoa, an ocean beach landmark in Golden Gate Park since it was hauled ashore in 1909, has been undergoing restoration by the Gjoa Foundation, an organization of local Norwegians dedicated to preserving the craft as a monument.

Commemorative ceremonies are planned for May 14, by which time $37,000 will have been spent to restore the 70-foot vessel.

The Gjoa first arrived in San Francisco in 1906 after a 22-month expedition to locate the magnetic North Pole. Amundsen and his crew are also credited with sailing through the Northwest Passage, the first and only time in history the passage has been navigated successfully.

"Mr. Adam" Is Now Playing At Curran Theatre

Jack Kirkland, author of "Tobacco Road" and "Suds in Your Eye," has converted Pat Frank's hilarious best seller, "Mr. Adam," into a new comedy which he will present at the Curran Theatre on Monday, March 14. The local engagement is limited to two weeks. Matinees will be given Wednesday and Saturday.

Staged by Mr. Kirkland, "Mr. Adam" boasts of a superb cast that includes such stalwart players of stage and screen as Robert Hutton, Elisabeth Fraser, Frank Albertson, Emory Parnell, Howard Freeman, Oliver Blake, George Ramsey and Maxine Semon. The setting is the creative design of Phil Raguel.

"Mr. Adam" introduces to theatre-goers a meek, mild-mannered citizen residing in Tarrytown, N.Y., who by a strange quirk of fate, emerges as the most important male in all the world. An atom bomb exploding in Mississippi turns every male member of the human race sterile — all, save, one Homer Adam! From then on, his life is public domain. What actually happens to the most-sought-after male in the world is the hilarious theme of this brisk, salty satire.

Following two weeks at the Curran, "Mr. Adam" will entrain for sojourns in Detroit and Chicago, prior to its long-awaited New York premiere.

Fashion Show To Be Featured At Jeff Hi Mothers, Daughters Tea

A fashion show will be one of the main features of the day at the annual Mothers and Daughters tea of the Jefferson high school to be presented May 12 in the Jefferson auditorium. Putting on the show will be girls from Miss Elizabeth Jones' sewing classes who will model the dressses, coats, gowns, play suits, and dress suits that they have made.

Members of the P.T.A. will also be presented at the tea. The event is scheduled to start at 1:30 p.m.

To Discuss Prop. 4 Next Wednesday At Masonic Hall

Constant efforts of the opponents of Proposition 4 to sabotage the aged and blind aid measure, which have come to a head in the scheme to repeal the amendment, will be discussed fully at a meeting of the Citizens' Committee for Old Pensions to be held on Wednesday, March 23, at 1:30 p.m. in the Masonic Hall, Daly City.

This meeting is a part of an expanded statewide meeting schedule being carried out by the Citizens' Committee to acquaint the voters of California with the truth about Proposition 4 and the attempts being made to destroy the hard-won security of the aged and blind. The meeting is free and all pensioners and their friends and supporters are urged to attend.

Great Depression

Soudan Basin of Africa is a 4,000,000 square mile depression in the land, surrounded by a height of land water shed. It is identified as the North Pole ice cap bowl of the last previous epoch of time, and as having been careened about 5,000 miles from the polar Axis of Spin.

Air Force's New Speed Demon

A six-jet B-47 bomber of the U. S. Air Force buzzes Andrews Field, Md., just before landing after setting a new unofficial transcontinental speed record. The plane flew from Moses Lake, Wash., to Andrews Field in just three hours and 46 minutes.

About 52 per cent of the country roads in America are still unsurfaced, but present programs will reduce this by about 5 per cent within the next year.

ESTATE OPPOSES NEW SITE SELECTED FOR PENINSULAR HOSPITAL

A fight to obtain the new site for the Peninsular hospital was seen as Leslie Moore, president of the Mills Estate company announced that the proposed site for the $2,950,000 hospital was not for sale.

In order to acquire the property, the district will have to begin condemnation proceedings against the Mills Estate, according to Robert J. Koshland, Hillsborough, president of the board of directors.

The site was selected by the Hamilton company, national hospital planning and research firm. It is south of an original site approved by the Mills Estate last June. It will extend about 900 feet north of Ray Park along the west side of El Camino Real and then will run 11,000 feet west, forming a rectangle.

San Francisco May Get Hoover Type Survey

Possibility of a "little Hoover commission" for the city government was indicated this week by Supervisor Daniel J. Gallagher, chairman of the Board's finance committee.

The survey would be aimed to uncover inefficiencies, overlapping functions, and wasteful procedures in the many city boards, commissions, departments and bureaus, Gallagher said, pointing out that budgets have now reached the point where it is difficult for the Board to enforce economies, as it has in the past, on a piecemeals dollar-by-dollar basis.

First step toward starting the survey will be taken by the Board when the problem is discussed with E. O. Griffenhagan, senior partner of a nationally known firm of governmental consultants.

Leverage

Archimedes said: Give me sufficient leverage and I will move the world."

These bright-faced girls are members of the choir of the Home of the Good Shepherd, where love and understanding have guided them back to normal, happy living. With Rev. Joseph S. Martinelli, Archdiocesan Director of Music, they are rehearsing special music for Good Shepherd Sunday which will be observed in all Catholic churches February 20, when individual parishes will make their contributions to the building fund appeal now in progress throughout northern California. The appeal will enable the Sisters of the Good Shepherd to expand their present program for rehabilitating young girls paroled to them by courts of northern California, and initiate California's first juvenile delinquency preventive program for young girls. Archbishop John J. Mitty is honorary chairman of the Appeal.

COUNTY COUNCIL WILL MEET HERE

Daly City will be host to the May meeting of the North County Council of City Councils, Councilman Charles K. Elder, secretary, announced recently. The county's four cities, Daly City, San Bruno, Milibrae and South San Francisco, will discuss uniform pay for police and firemen.

Dr. Harold Chope, county health director, has been asked to attend the meeting in order to expedite better medical and ambulance service for north county cities.

Representatives of the four cities attended a meeting in San Mateo last Thursday night with San Mateo County Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig as guest speaker. Dolwig discussed legislative matters affecting cities along with community problems.

X-Ray Diagnosis

As an aid in diagnosis, X-rays provide two different methods of examination: One is known as radiography, whereby a permanent record of the X-ray image of various parts of the body is made on the film. The other method is known as fluoroscopy, which affords a means of visual study of the X-ray shadowed on a fluorescent screen. An X-ray film, or adiograph, of any part of the body is similar to a photograph except that it is fundamentally a shadowgraph rather than a picture produced by reflected light.

Bovine Tuberculosis

New anxiety about bovine tuberculosis is being expressed by the American Foundation for Animal health, which says that outbreaks of the disease have occurred in cattle herds in many sections of the country. Farmers are urged to have their herds tested to be sure they are free of infection.

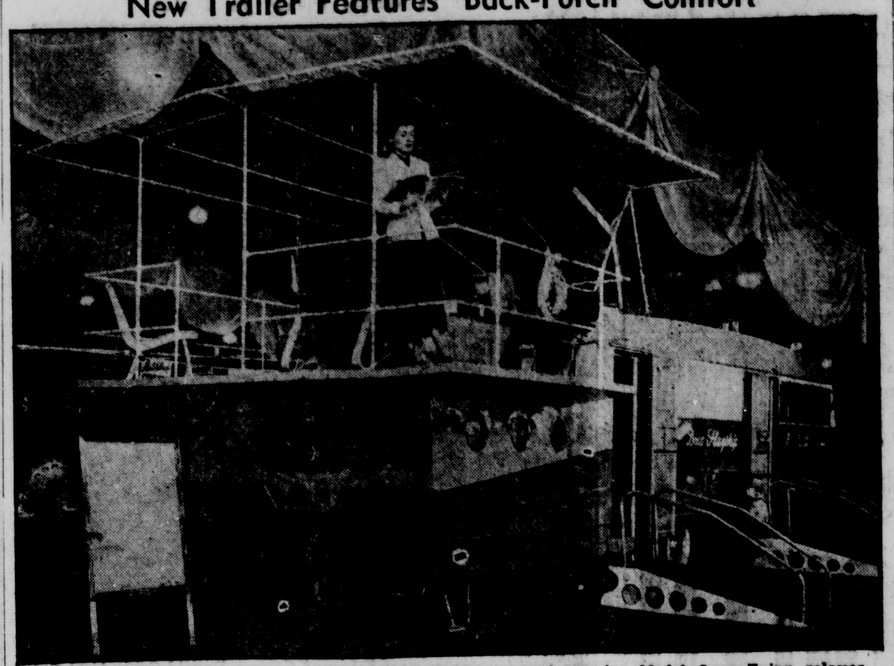
New Trailer Features 'Back-Porch' Comfort



Americans can now take to the road carrying their own back porch. Model Jane Zuinn relaxes aboard the "flying bridge" on a 10- by 12-foot screened porch built on the back of a trailer. On display at the 13th International Trailer Show in Chicago, the trailer also features a private porch for the family dog, right.

Canada Grouse

Canada grouse differs from the ruffed grouse in having smaller crests on their heads, smaller air sacs on their necks, and shorter tails, which are square at the ends. The coloration is darker and they are somewhat smaller.

For An Onion Flavor

Next time you are making sandwiches, slip the knife with which you are slicing tomatoes into an onion several times while slicing each tomato. This will give a delicate onion flavor, but the onion taste will not be strong enough to be unpleasant.

Cut In Tax Rate Seems Possible

A two-hour session between the county supervisors and members of the grand jury brought forth the possibility that the county taxes would be lowered for the coming year.

The discussion concluded with assurance by the board of supervisors that they will "do everything they can" to hold down or pare the record budget for 1949-50, now in preparation, according to Grand Jury Foreman C. B. Weltner.

Weltner also said that the board and grand jury were both hopeful of keeping expenses down, although neither is in a position to make an accurate prediction.

The grand jury also went on record as being in support of Assemblyman Richard J. Dolwig's legislative bill to add a third department to the superior court of San Mateo, although it was later pointed out that it runs somewhat contrary to the drive for economy and tax reduction.

Romance and Melody in New Danny Kaye Show

The romantic triangle of a music professor, a torch singer and a jealous admirer motivates Danny Kaye's hilarious new vehicle, "A Song Is Born," playing at the Daly City Theatre Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, March 20, 21, and 22.

Kaye co-stars with Virginia Mayo, and is supported by Hugh Herbert and top musical personalities in the Samuel Goldwyn production for RKO Radio release. The yellow-haired favorite portrays the professor, one of a group compiling a History of Music, who suddenly discover the existence of jive and jazz. Miss Mayo, the torch singer, and a group of leading figures in today's musical circles explain the new rhythms to the astonished professor and his erudite staff in a sparkling jam session.

But the singer's tough boy-friend objects to her interest in the young male historian, and the result is a fast and furious series of complications that provide the dramatic element of the show.

Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, Louis Armstrong, Lionel Hampton, Charlie Barnet and Mel Powell are among the jazz greats who play prominent roles in the tuneful offering. Howard Hawks directed.

U. S. Factory Workers

A third of all persons employed in American factories work with materials supplied by agriculture.

Canada Ranks Second

Canada is the second largest country on the face of the earth, exceeded only by Soviet Russia.

A GAL AND A DOG

Janet Leigh finds a devoted pal in Lassie, M-G-M's wonder dog, who plays another heroic canine role in "Hills of Home," showing Sunday at the Crest Theatre. Filmed in Technicolor in the rugged High Sierras, the picture also stars Edmund Gwenn, Donald Crisp, Tom Drake.

"An Ingenious Man"

"He was an ingenious man that first found out eating and drinking," said old Jonathan Swift, whose wit was matched by a good appetite.

Heat Conservation

Weatherstrip loose fitting windows and doors to make them fight and conserve heat.

Copper Country

Northern Rhodesia, in the heart of Africa, now supplies about 12 per cent of the world's copper, produced by the most modern mass mining methods.

Good Provider

Cottontail rabbit provides more meat for the American table than any other game animal.

Family Council

One way of attaining a more succesful home life is by the provision of a family council. Let all members of the household join in this council and meet once a week to discuss common problems. This will give anyone with a grievance an opportunity to bring it before the group.

Sweet Potatoes

Sweet potatoes should be used within a week or so after they are purchased to be at their best. Like bananas, they should never be put in the refrigerator. They are so sensitive to cold that they may turn dark and become less appetizing if they are kept at a temperature as low as 40 F.
